

Marshall Cook

Land Acquisition Manager

Marshall Cook is the Land Acquisition Manager for Westervelt. In his position, Marshall assists both public and private clients with their mitigation obligations and also works to acquire new projects for Westervelt.

Prior to joining Westervelt, Marshall served as Transaction Director for the California Rangeland Trust. Marshall earned an undergraduate degree in marketing from Westminster College in Salt Lake City, Utah, and a law degree from McGeorge School of Law at the University of the Pacific in Sacramento, California. Prior to beginning his secondary education, Marshall served in the United States Army, 3rd Infantry Regiment, 'The Old Guard,' in Fort Meyer, Arlington, Virginia.